Dear Jan,

CGIL stands in solidarity with the workers fired by LOT airlines for having participated in an industrial action for improving their working conditions and to defend their trade union rights.

Trade union rights, along with the right to industrial action, are enshrined in the Charter of fundamental rights of the EU, and have to be respected in all the member States. Furthermore, social dialogue must be applied at all levels, to prevent such drastic conclusions.

Workers' rights to decent working conditions and fair salary, along with trade union rights at the workplace should be supported and defended, for the progress of the whole society.

CGIL will support the Polish trade unions in their struggle for the achievement of these goals. Unite we win!

In solidarity
